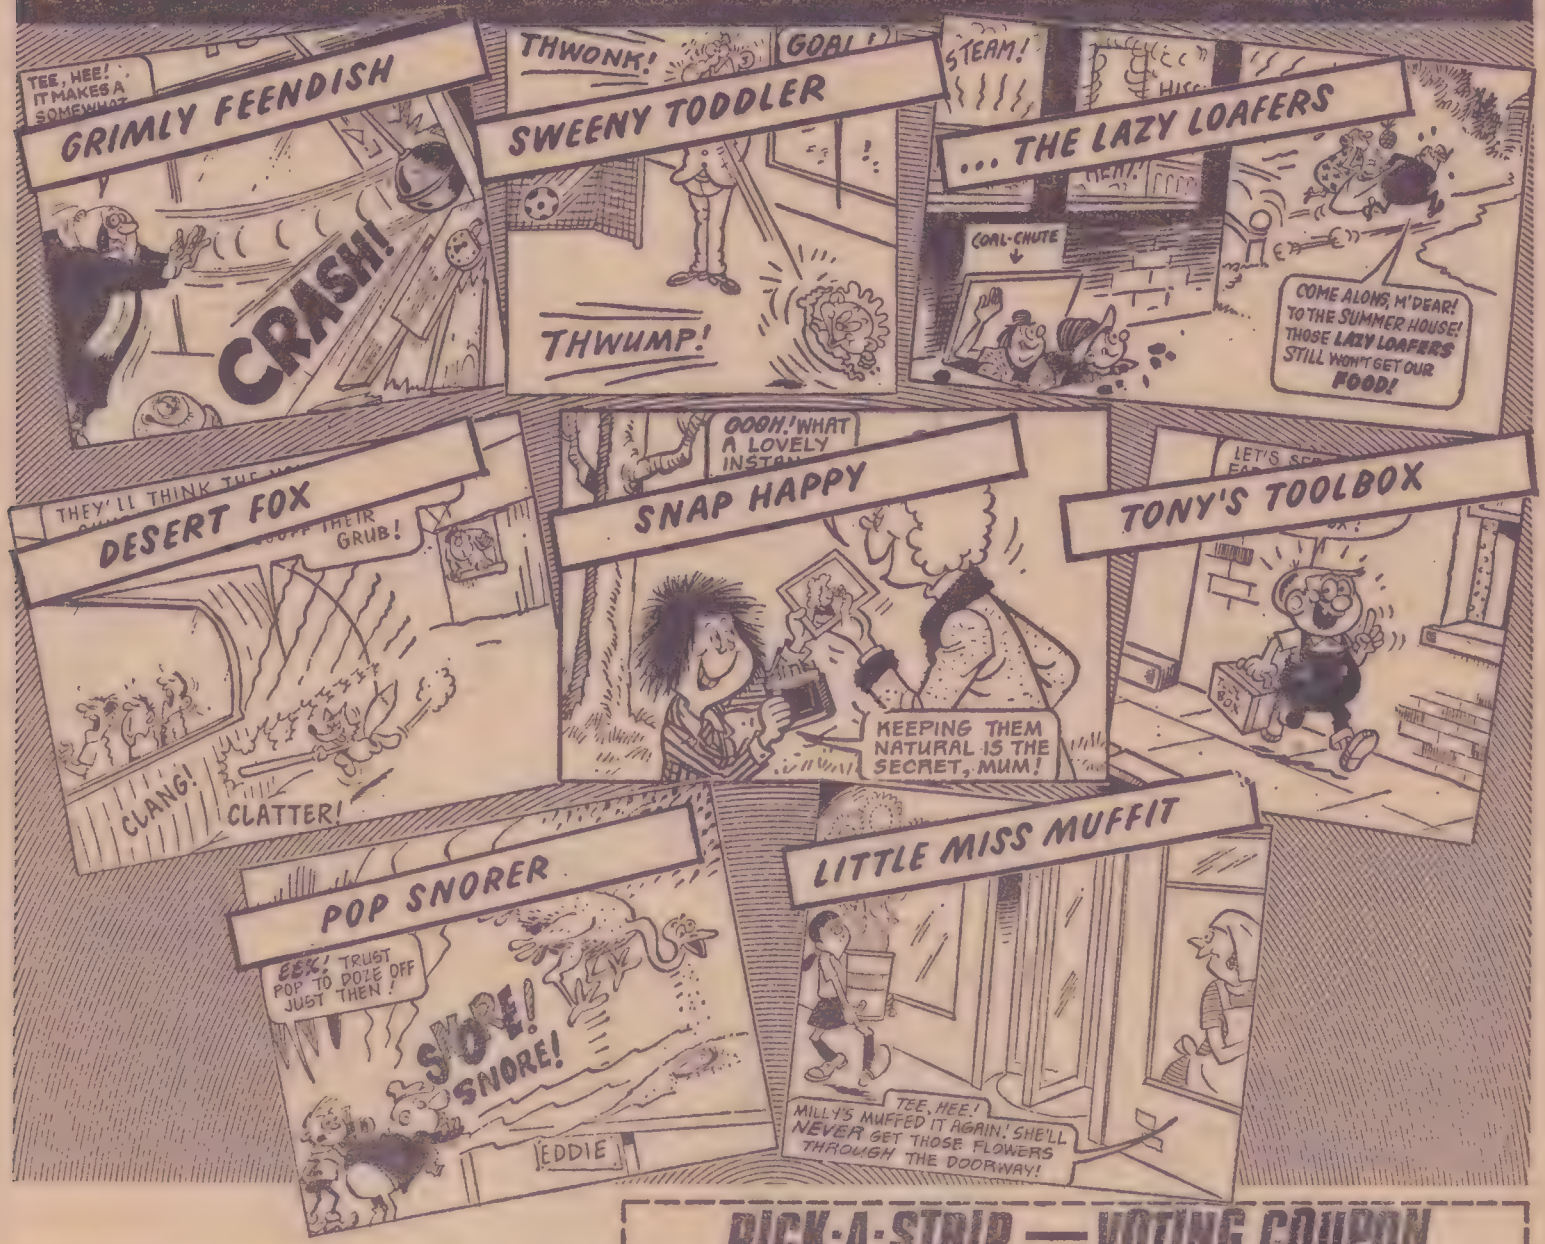
Pick-a-Strip

Last week saw the final story in our PICK-A-STRIP series. Now comes your chance to play the role of EDITOR of WHOOPEE! & SHIVER AND SHAKE, and choose which strip will appear as a regular feature in your comic! I hope you've all kept the copies containing the eight PICK-A-STRIP stories, so that you can have another look through them before making your final decision. Voting details are below!



HOW TO VOTE

Simply write the titles of all the PICK-A-STRIP stories in the coupon on the right, alongside the marks out of eight you have awarded each of them. For example, write the title of your favourite story beside the figure 8, your second favourite beside 7, and so on.

Having completed the form, cut it out, stick it on the back of a postcard and send it to PICK-A-STRIP at the WHOOPEE! & SHIVER AND SHAKE ADDRESS. The big count-up of votes will take place on Wednesday, December, 18th!

Letters

Dear Shake,

Did you know there are six ravens at the Tower of London . . . their names are Grogg, Hectora, Kala, Merry, Broro, and Garvey. Legend says if the ravens ever leave, the White Tower will collapse.

PHILIP WESTERBY, ST. ALBANS.

Cheeky Ossie the Office boy says that the same thing would happen if ever I visited the place . . . Shake.

Dear Editor,

I'd like to tell you how much I appreciate your comic. I used to buy both WHOOPEE! and SHIVER & SHAKE, and I particularly liked the Creepy Creations and the Wanted Posters. Now I'm looking forward to collecting the series of World Wide Wierdies.

A. SAUNDERS, Poole.

Now here's a reader who is really close to his/her favourite comic, because WHOOPEE! / SHIVER & SHAKE is printed in Poole . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I think the new combined comic is very good, although you have taken out two of my favourite features from the original SHIVER & SHAKE . . . Horrornation Street and Sweeny Toddler. I hope you will put them back in, but even if you can't, I won't stop reading the comic.

A. READER, Maldon.

Sorry about not printing your name, pal . . . but your coupon became separated from the letter you sent. However, Sweeny Toddler is counting on your vote for the PICK-A-STRIP series, and Horrornation Street is featured in SHIVER & SHAKE ANNUAL 1975 . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I wish to complain about the merger between the two comics. Our whole family think both Sweeny Toddler and Desert Fox should have retained their fun spots in the combined WHOOPEE!/ SHIVER & SHAKE.

J. CZENNUSYKIA, Tamworth.

Sweeny can REGAIN his page, as I've explained above, and the same goes for Desert Fox . . . Editor.

OSSIE

Hi, gang! Got your Christmas lists made out yet? . . . I bet you have. I've been dropping hints at home for a stereo system (then I can play my records at full blast!), but I've not seen any parcels being smuggled indoors up to now. There's still time, though, so I'm not giving up hope yet.

Dear Ossie,

I thought you might like to hear about a funny thing that happened to my friend while we were fishing recently. He yanked a fish right out of the water, and it flew into someone's garden. What made me laugh was he had to go to the door and ask: "Please may I have my fish back?"

PHILIP BERRY, Hounslow.

Wow! I've heard fishermen talk of "the one that got away", but that is RIDICULOUS! . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

I am a great fan of yours. Here is a picture of me and my brother John (his nickname is "Ginger Nuts" because he has red hair). We both think you are a good office boy, and John has the Wanted Poster of you by his bed. Also, like you, we both enjoy sossies and chips.

KAREN BLACK, Liverpool.

Ahum! I like your taste, pals . . . both in food and office boys . . . Ossie.
